

The 2011 Elf Parade

Friday, November 25, 2011
Parade begins at 5:00 pm

WHO: All children under the age of 9 are encouraged to participate.

WHAT: The 2011 Elf Parade! Santa will lead the children's parade while a youth marching band plays holiday music.

WHERE: The parade will organize behind the T.T. Wentworth Museum (330 S. Jefferson Street) and conclude in front of the Old Escambia County Courthouse's (now Artel Gallery) stairs at 223 S. Palafox Place. Immediately following the Elf Parade the, "Lighting of the Greens," will occur in the same location.

All elves are encouraged to dress in elf ears, stocking caps and other colorful "elf" attire. You can download elf ear templates, line-up information and the parade route map at www.downtownpensacola.com.

Costumes other than elf costumes are also appropriate and creativity is encouraged!

Please contact Alex Colley at 434-5371 or alex@downtownpensacola.com for further information.